

Our Town

Tomorrow the baseball club will come back from Jacksonville after a hard series of five games, keeping the name of Cameron before the world and justifying its traditions in the world of sport. When the boys went away the treasury was depleted. Since they have been gone a few have made efforts to get the town interested and to get those who subscribed to pay but only partial success has been met. When the club comes back what are we going to say? How are we going to justify the claims we have for doing things for Cameron? It is not possible to believe Cameron will fail in this moment. The season is just begun. We have the best baseball club in history of the town. Many who sit on the front row and razz and seem to get more pleasure from the game than anyone have so far failed to contribute anything. They seem to want George to do it all. Poor George! A tragic figure. We should have more sporting blood than to expect poor George to pay it all. Let's puff up a flat purse and maintain our baseball club. That's what "Our Town" editor thinks about it and doesn't care who knows it.

It's a popular sport now. You simply take a wagon rod and in suspicious areas you sound out for liquor by thrusting the rod in the ground. They find water with peach tree limbs and discover oil with hogs, why not liquor with wagon rods. Sheriff Rogers and deputies have found a large quantity of liquor in this manner. We do not know how Rogers came to use this method, but then every Sheriff has his own ideas how to get results and this has been successful to marked degree. The other day Mr. Rogers and Deputy Kennedy found a five gallon jug buried under a water melon vine. Todate no conclusive theory has been advanced as to whether the benefits would accrue to the melons or whisky. Rogers seems to think the idea was to improve the vintage.

So insistent has become the liquor traffic in Milam county that the court dockets are cluttered with cases so that such a thing as civil litigation is rare in the courts. Practically all the cases are for liquor law violations. Not only has the traffic begun a stubborn fight to live but in many places throughout the country is willing to spill the blood of officers to survive. Juries very often say "not guilty." Has society no defenders?

Cameron has a beautiful high school building. Everybody admits that. Out in Oak Hill cemetery two pioneer citizens are at rest, their memory blessed with the benediction of high esteem in which they were held by the people here. They left an enduring memorial to their citizenship and a gift to the city of incalculable worth—a school. Today thistles grow on the campus of that school and weeds rob the building of its beauty. Coal cinders, junk and garbage is piled high on this campus and the streets about the grounds are unworked and unkempt. There is no front street approach to this building and its imposing appearance is the last to attract the eye of the visitor because those responsible for its keeping have not surrounded it with the attention it deserves. Last week thieves broke in and robbed the vault of all silver and valuables. Is this building a mark for thieves to be surrounded by weeds and rubbish or a gift of surpassing value to be cherished and kept? This is plain talk but go look for yourself and then think it over.

Every time a jury sets a bootlegger free society loses a notch in the unequal fight to maintain itself as a respectable element of civilization.

All of us are pedestrians at one time or another even though we may own a fleet of automobiles and a motorcycle with a side car. So, we can lend at least one ear to the plaint of the people who are full-time pedestrians. Of course, these chaps don't feel any too kindly toward the automobile and its driver. It is these people out of luck who place the lion's share of blame for accidents upon the motorist. Now you and I who have a car license, a driver's license—and thus qualify for a marriage license—are inclined to place the blame for accidents upon the pedestrians. Well to be fair to one and all, we must acknowledge that the blame probably is a fifty-fifty proposition. Taking this attitude, then both the motorist and the pedestrian must do his share in preventing accidents. This is a "safety-first" suggestion that ought to help reduce the bowling over of pedestrians on the streets as well as on the alleys. Just to cheer us all, newspaper humorists' joke and jibe about the pedestrian in a good natured way and "Topics of the Day" films screens some of the best specimens for theatre audiences. Either the autostist or the pedestrian who "walks" down our column of peplful paragraphs will enjoy the humor hits.

The Insurance Field says: "Cameron, Texas, a small city in population of about 4,400 has upwards of about thirty life insurance agents, but among this number there is only one full time agent."

As a cheap vacation, we suggest putting on a bathing suit and being photographed at home.

PROSPERITY PICNIC AND CELEBRATION TUESDAY JULY 3

PRESBYTERIAN REVIVAL TO CLOSE SUNDAY NIGHT

PEOPLE OF CAMERON RESPOND TO TEACHINGS OF NOTED MINISTER.

Sunday night will mark the close of the series of meetings which have been in progress at the Presbyterian church since June 12.

Rev. Robert Hill, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Tyler, has preached two sermons daily. Those who heard him deliver his first sermon were convinced that he was a man of unusual ability and he has had a goodly number of regular attendants. The morning services have been a series of lectures. The first five were based on the Book of Leviticus and concerned the Old Testament Offerings. The lectures this week are on Christian Privileges. These lectures have been very instructive as well as spiritually helpful. The night services are evangelistic in nature. The simple gospel is preached and men and women are brought face to face with truth.

The Presbyterian people and the friends who have enjoyed this meeting with them feel that Dr. Hill's visit has been a great blessing to Cameron.

HIGHWAY REPORT.

Thursday, June 21, 11:00 a. m. The situation is still unfavorable for extended trips out of Texas, North and Northeast—that is, over routes that lead across Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas. Some of the streams are still swollen.

In going West and Southwest the roads are more favorable and really are about as good as could be expected. Though some parties are making El Paso via San Antonio, Del Rio, Langtry, Sanderson into Fort Stockton, it is not advisable at this time and the route from Cameron should be used via Georgetown, Burnet, Junction into Fort Stockton.

Some rain fell around Amarillo, but the going will be good today.

To Waco via Rosebud and Chilton is good via Satin along the track.

Route also from Chilton via Mooreville is good, the route via Golconda is not passable but not advisable.

Taylor via Thorndale is passable but a detour is necessary from Thrall to Taylor. The best route to San Antonio is via Rogers, Taylor and Austin.

All other routes out of Cameron are open, however extended trips through some sections are not advisable at present and it will be well to stop by and get the latest reports, logs and maps of the intended trip.

Tourist travel is heavy thru Cameron.

The Wilson-Ledbetter tourist park was broadcasted by the Dallas News Radio station Saturday.

CAMERON ODD FELLOWS ELECT OFFICERS FOR THE COMING TERM.

The Oddfellows lodge in Cameron have elected officers for the coming year as follows: W. O. Triggs, Noble Grand, E. B. McGill, Vice Grand. The offices of secretary and treasurer were not to be filled at this time as the occupants hold over. They are Jim P. Chadwick, secretary and Chas. Smith, treasurer.

These officers with all appointive officers will be installed on the first meeting night in July.

Mrs. Trent Newton and children have returned from a visit with relatives in Brookshire.

EASTLAND SENATOR OUT FOR GOVERNOR OF TEXAS

SENATOR JOE BURKETT ANNOUNCES PARTIAL PLATFORM.

Eastland, Texas, June 20.—Senator Joe Burkett in announcing his candidacy for the nomination for Governor in the Democratic primaries in 1924, said:

"This is to announce that I shall be a candidate for Governor, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in 1924. I had not intended to make known my candidacy before the first of next year, but because of conditions that have arisen in a political way in the past two or three weeks, I deem it advisable to let my intentions be known at this time. At the proper time I shall begin an active campaign and advocate, among other issues, the following:

1. A state reserve banking system with a central state bank for the promotion, primarily, of the farming and livestock interests of our state.

2. A state controlled system of fire-proof terminal warehouses at our large railroad centers and seaports, to end that our staple products may be successfully marketed.

3. A constitutional amendment providing for a reasonable bonus for ex-service men, if the Federal government fails to provide such bonus.

4. A constitutional amendment abolishing useless offices and placing their work with other offices.

5. The abolition of ad valorem taxes for state purposes, leaving the ad valorem taxes for counties and cities, and letting the state government be maintained by franchise, corporation, income, poll, gross production, severance and other taxes, thus once to unequal and inadequate tax eliminating all contention with referendums.

6. Water conservation and flood control.

7. Retention by the state of all water power sites.

8. A consistently liberal policy towards industrial enterprises, to the end that Texas may become a manufacturing state as well as a producer of raw material.

9. A connected system of state highways to be maintained by the state.

10. A more liberal policy toward our public schools, to the end that every child may receive at least a high school education.

11. A closer co-ordination of our institutions of higher learning with each other and with the public school

ROSEBUD COMING HERE SATURDAY FOR VICTORY

NEW MEN ADDED TO CLUB AND STRENGTH OF TEAM SAID TO BE FORTIFIABLE.

Considerable feeling has been aroused here over the announced intention of Rosebud to win Saturday and Sunday's game against Cameron at all hazards.

The Rosebud team has recently added a number of new players and word was sent here last night by Manager Muldrew that he has a real ball club and wants this fact widely advertised.

Cameron has defeated Rosebud three times. Rosebud feels she is entitled to the victory in the Saturday and Sunday game. The Sunday game will be the last game to be played on Sunday. This game had been matched and it was found that, although Manager Rogers planned to cancel it, this could not be done honorably. An effort was made to get Mart to substitute for Cameron but Rosebud insisted that Cameron keep her engagement.

Cameron has won two of the three games played with Jacksonville in Jacksonville, thus winning four of the five games played against that team.

The Saturday game will be the hardest fought battle of the year and is said to be the "contest of the century" so far as local base ball history is concerned.

PREPARE FOR 15,000 IN CAMERON FOR THE DAY

AMERICAN LEGION, FIREMEN AND BASE BALL CLUB PROMOTING CELEBRATION.

Friday morning in the Auditorium Hotel the chairman of the committees appointed to arrange the Prosperity Picnic and Celebration on July 4 will meet the general committee for the celebration.

At this meeting a report is expected to be made from as many of the committees as are able to report and final instructions will be given to the committees that have not yet begun their work.

This will be the last general meeting of the committees as each committee chairman will be expected to carry all information to his committee and begin at once to carry out the work assigned.

The entertainment committee will be required to have the program ready for publication by Monday morning. It cannot be handled later than that time because the advertising matter must be issued.

At a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the office of County Engineer A. F. Mitchell the general committee composed of J. B. White, chairman; A. F. Mitchell, T. S. Hendon, Wm. R. Rogers, Joe Lindsey and Ray Robinson, secretary, made the final plans for the celebration.

A schedule of finance calling for about $1,000 was voted and has been referred to George T. Graves, chairman of the finance committee. The finance committee has been asked to make a report on Friday if possible.

Proceeds from this barbecue as planned by the concessions committee will be divided between the American Legion, Firemen and Base ball team. The firemen will give their share to the ball club.

In order to make the celebration program as compact as possible it has been decided to conduct the hose races at the park on the street leading east to the Wm. Rogers home.

A number of Central Texas towns will compete for the prizes aggregating $250. United States Senator Morris Shepard will address the people if plans can be realized. The bands will play throughout the day.

One of the chief attractions will be the ball game between San Antonio of the Texas league and the Cameron Comets.

The celebration will be held in the City Park. Preparations are being made for 15,000 people to come here on that day.

The celebration will be held on the third because of other towns surrounding having planned their celebrations ahead of Cameron.

Up to going to press near 40 beehives had been donated by liberal citizens of the county and the city for the barbecue which will be absolutely free to everyone.

In every way the celebration will be the biggest event in twenty years.

LIQUOR RAID NETS FOUR MEN AND MUCH BOOZE

SHERIFF ROGERS OPENS WAR ON LIQUOR TRAFFIC AND BOOTLEGGERS.

In a whisky raid last Monday Sheriff Drue S. Rogers and Deputy N. O. Kennedy arrested four men near Val Verde and took ten gallons of liquor and confiscated about 200 gallons of mash.

In the first raid two men were arrested and a five gallon jug of whisky dug from the ground, also one fruit jar full and one bottle of liquor was found. At another place raided two men were arrested and five gallons of liquor found. Some whisky was found in the room where it has been made and one jug was found buried beneath a water melon vine. The whisky was located by means of wagon rods thrust in the ground to discover the hidden goods.

In addition the officers found a four burner oil stove, charcoal, jars, funnels and other equipment. Two hundred gallons of mash was found buried in the ground. Three of the men taken in the raid have been given bond while one is still in jail.

In another raid on last Saturday night Mr. Rogers took one prisoner and a still, coil and five gallons of whisky. The man arrested is the first person of German descent arrested on a liquor charge in the county.

These are among a number of liquor raids made in the county during the past few weeks. Sheriff Rogers declares he is just beginning to warm up for the fight on the liquor business and within a short time will begin in earnest to clean up the county.

WOUNDED OFFICER TELLS STORY OF LIQUOR RAID

Shot and with four pounds of flesh missing from his right hip and a wound eight by five inches in size which in all probability will impair his health for life, Deputy Sheriff Will H. Little of Buckholts, wounded in a liquor raid on the Bob Stevens farm on the Waco road on Thursday June 7, related for newspaper publication from his bed in the hospital Wednesday a partial story of the raid.

While Mr. Little has been under painful suffering for the past week, his recovery is now likely and physicians expect him to be up in a short time. He accepts his condition philosophically and with a genuine smile and a twinkle of humor in his steel grey eyes, feels he has served the state and that his sacrifice is one all good officers should make if need be in defense of the law.

He tells the following story of the raid up until the time he made his way back to the Bob Stevens home after being shot while attempting to place under arrest two men taken in the raid:

"On Thursday morning about seven o'clock June 7th, 1923, acting under instructions from Sheriff Drue S. Rogers, I had issued by Justice W. E. Coley of Buckholts, 3 search warrants, and after securing the warrants, came to Cameron where I joined Sheriff Rogers and Deputy Sheriff N. O. Kennedy. We went to the home of Bob Stevens which is located about three and a half miles out on the Waco road, sometimes called the Germania Hall road. When we arrived at the house Mr. Stevens was in the field at work. Sheriff Rogers asked that a messenger be sent to get Mr. Stevens. He then asked some of the children be sent for him, later turning to Deputy Sheriff Kennedy sent him to the field for Mr. Stevens.

"A small child left the house and went to the home of Little Bob Stevens a short distance away. Attracted by this I followed. The child went in the house and a moment later Little Bob Stevens came out and began working on a car. I went up to him and spoke and then passed on, going in the direction of the field. I did not see the child any more at that time but presently saw Kennedy and Stevens coming from the field. Being some distance from the house and the underbrush being heavy, Kennedy and Stevens reached the house ahead of me but I arrived in time to see them all enter the house.

"A few moments later the child ran out of the house again and I followed. This time the child went to the Wesley Stevens home. I was about 75 yards behind the child. A moment after the child entered Wesley Stevens and Jim Brashear went out of the rear of the house and hurriedly went to a small tin house which was attached to and a part of the barn. I hurried up to the place and as I approached Wesley Stevens ran out with a stone jar I took to be of about 12 gallon capacity, pouring the contents on the ground.

"Jim Brashear then ran out with a coil and turned hurriedly west through the woods. I passed by Wesley Stevens and spoke to him, following Brashear. To this he made no reply. I hurried on. About two hundred yards further I saw Brashear stop and I saw him throw the coil away. I went on and picked up the coil and placing Brashear under arrest went back to where Wesley Stevens was.

"As I approached the door (continued on page six.)

RESTRICTIONS PLACED ON FISHING IN MILAM

SEIN AN NET OUTLAWED BY LEGISLATURE IN RECENT LAW PASSED.

For the benefit of many who are anxious to know the provisions of the new statute enacted by the legislature imposing restrictions on fishermen to preserve the fish supply, the Herald has secured copy of this law as follows:

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: Sec. 1. If any person shall sell or offer for sale any bass, white perch, crappie, channel cat or other catfish, caught trapped or ensnared in the Counties of Burnet, San Saba, Brown, McCulloch, Edwards, Menard, Coleman, Gillespie, Sutton, Kinney, Uvalde, Kerr, Real, Valverde, Bandera, Comal, Reeves, Ward, Loving, Pecos, Medina, Cherokee, Hunt, Runnels, Rains, Kimble, Williamson, Houston, Zavalla, Dimmitt, Wood, Travis, Milam, Llano, Lampasas, Mason and Concho, State of Texas, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof be fined in any sum not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch any fish in the fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, or lagoons in the counties above named, by any other means than by ordinary hook and line or artificial bait and trot line, and it shall be unlawful for any person to place in the fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, or lagoons of the counties above named, by any seine, net or other device or trap catching or for taking fish; Provided, however, that persons may use a minnow seine which is not more than twenty feet in length for the purpose of catching minnows for bait. Provided, however, that in seining for minnows for bait as herein permitted, all fish and minnows more than three inches in length, shall be returned to the water at once, while still alive. No person shall use the minnow seine, herein permitted, for the purpose of taking any fish other than minnows, for bait. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, when found guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to take from the public fresh water of the counties above mentioned more than thirty-five of such fish in any one day. Any person violating any provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than five dollars, nor more than one hundred dollars. Each such fish so taken in excess of the number herein allowed, shall constitute a separate offense.

Section. 3a. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, knowingly to place throw, or deposit upon the banks or grounds adjacent to any of the public fresh water creeks, rivers, lakes pools, bayous, lagoons, or tanks in the counties above mentioned, any catfish, perch, bass, trout, crappie, white perch, or other edible fish and leave such fish to die, without any intent upon the part of such person either to eat such fish or use same for bait. Any person found guilty of the violation of any provision of this section, shall be fined in any sum not to exceed twenty-five dollars. Each fish so allowed to die shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 4. The fact that the present law is inadequate to protect the fish in the waters of the above mentioned counties, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity exists that the Constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

If Back Hurts Begin on Salts

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally by Drinking Quarts of Good Water

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Too much rich food creates acids which clog the kidney pores so that they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood. Then you get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage, or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin to drink soft water in quantities; also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, which everyone can take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby often preventing serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

GRAND JURY CALLED TO CONVENE ON JUNE 27TH

CONVICTIONS ARE MADE BY JURIES IN LIQUOR CASES IN DISTRICT COURT.

The Grand Jury has been called to reconvene on June 27. District Judge John Watson has set aside the order discharging the jury and will have the jurors convene at nine o'clock on the 27th.

It is believed that the jury has been called to investigate the traffic in whisky in the county and the recent trouble in which an officer was shot.

In the case State of Texas vs. Lazarus Carey resulted in a mistrial the jury unable to agree. The case will be retried. Carey, negro is charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor. In the State of Texas vs. Henry Taylor, charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor, the jury rendered a verdict of guilty and assessed his punishment at one year confinement in the penitentiary.

In the State of Texas vs. Frank Stach charged with the possession of intoxicating liquor for the purpose of sale, was convicted by the jury and his punishment assessed at one year

Texas vs. Isaac Embry charged with murder and his punishment assessed at 10 years in the State Penitentiary. This case having been appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals and the sentence affirmed by them.

Periodic Causes of Unemployment Following Prosperity Treated in Report of Business Cycles Committee Named By Hoover

OWEN D. YOUNG

MISS MARY VAN KLEECK

HERBERT HOOVER

Employer and labor leader, social worker and manufacturer, have sat together, studied the causes of periodic business depression and unemployment, and have made a joint report to the effect that common sense and informed judgment during business booms can minimize, perhaps eventually eliminate, the disastrous slumps which in the past have followed great waves of prosperity.

Miss Mary Van Kleeck, of the Russell Sage Foundation, and Owen D. Young, pictured above, are two of the special committee appointed by Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce and Chairman of the President's Conference on Unemployment, to delve into the causes of the business cycle, whose upward swings make business man and laborer alike prosper, and whose alternate dips bring heavy losses to employer and bitter days of workless unhappiness to millions of the men who make the wheels go 'round.

Mr. Young, president of the General Electric Company, was chairman of the investigating body. Miss Van Kleeck, Joseph H. Defrees, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce; Clarence M. Wooley, president of the American Radiator Company; Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor and Edward Eyre Hunt, secretary of the President's Conference on Unemployment, chairmaned by Secretary Hoover, were the other members. If every American business man will learn to buy cautiously on a rising market, they say, and not be trapped into taking on large stocks at prices too high for liquidation when the saturation point of boom production is reached, there will not be nearly so much danger of serious financial depressions.

The report includes suggestions for inflation control by specific lines of action on the part of individuals, the banks, the federal government, the states, and great industries such as construction and public utilities. Two separate documents are available for general study. The basic facts, as gathered by the National Bureau of Economic Research, have been edited and done into a book by the McGraw Hill Company, New York. The committee report can be secured by application to the President's Conference on Unemployment, Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C.

SANDY RIDGE PIONEER MAN CALLED BY DEATH

W. R. WALLACE, 87 YEARS OF AGE, PASSES AWAY AT HOME AT SANDY RIDGE.

Rogers, Texas, June 16.—W. R. Wallace, a pioneer citizen of the Sandy Ridge community, in Milam county, but near Rogers, died Thursday night. The funeral took place at the McCann cemetery at noon yesterday, services being conducted by Rev. C. R. Joiner, pastor of the first Baptist church of Rogers. The funeral ceremony was conducted by the Masons, of which order Mr. Wallace was a member.

Born in Arkansas 87 years ago, "Uncle Bill" Wallace, as he was familiarly known, came to Bell county in 1873 and removed a short distance into Milam in 1877, and had resided for at least 40 years on his farm where he died.

Members of the immediate family surviving are, besides his aged wife, W. R. Wallace and Mrs. S. J. Mims, a son and daughter, living near Crockett, Texas.

"Uncle Bill" belonged in a class of men who are fast passing away. He was the last of the pioneers who settled in his neighborhood nearly 50 years ago. No higher tribute to his worth can be paid than to say that he was a true friend and an honest man.

INCOME TAX HINTS.

The following information is given out by James W. Bass, Collector of Internal Revenue, Austin, Texas, for the benefit of all those concerned with the filing of Capital Stock Tax returns due in July of the current year:

Blanks for the purpose of filing Capital Stock Tax Returns due in July of this year for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1924, have been released. An effort has been made to furnish each corporation within this district the proper blanks. All those corporations who fail to receive these forms should make application for same at once, since failure to file the return on or prior to July 31, 1923, subjects a corporation to heavy penalties for delinquency.

This tax for domestic corporations is at the rate of $1.00 for each full $1,000 of so much of the fair average value of the capital stock of said corporation as is in excess of the prescribed deduction of $6,000. The tax on foreign corporations is at the rate of $1.00 for each full $1,000 of its capital which is actually employed in the transaction of its business in the United States. Domestic corporations are required to file the return on Form 707. Foreign corporations should file on Form 708. When filing the return either Form 707 or 708, the taxpayer should attach thereto his remittance covering the full amount of tax disclosed by said return. If it develops upon a final audit of the return that the tax has been over or under paid, adjustment may be made by way of taxpayer's Claim for Refund or by the Bureau's assessment of additional taxes, as the facts in the case may require.

SLIVER OF STEEL COSTS DRILLER THE LOSS OF SIGHT IN HIS LEFT EYE.

Last Thursday while pulling the last few joints of casing from the abandoned Robertson No. 1, two and a half miles west of Rockdale, Wallace Guthrie suffered an accident which has since cost him the loss of his left eye. While hammering the connecting link in the chain tongs a sliver of steel hit him in the eye just at the side of the pupil. He was taken to Taylor where several X-Ray photographs finally located the small particle of steel in the very back of the eyeball, it having worked its way to the back side and lodged. On account of inflammation having set up the left eye had to be removed to prevent total blindness. For a while attending physicians feared that Mr. Guthrie might lose the sight of both eyes, but the removal of the affected member relieved existing conditions, and he is reported on the way to a rapid recovery. His many friends in Rockdale deplore this sad accident, but they are rejoiced to know that he is soon to be restored to them.

As a soldier in the World War, Mr. Guthrie saw much hard battle service in the Argonne and Meuse-Argonne campaigns as a first class machine gunner, coming through without a scratch, although more than once nearly every member of his machine gun company was killed or put out of commission by wounds. He is a friend and boyhood playmate of Alvin C. York, and lived as neighbor to York for many years in Tennessee. Guthrie is one of the most popular oil men in the field and his terrible affliction has caused universal sorrow among his many Rockdale friends not merely because of his splendid war record, but because of the fine character of the young man himself. —Rockdale Reporter.

ROCKDALE INVENTOR SHOWS FORD OWNERS HOW TO SAVE GASOLINE.

R. S. Morre, Rockdale's professional inventive genius, is now engaged in demonstrating his latest invention which is an attachment for a Ford motor intended to increase the mileage to be gained from the gasoline consumed.

Mr. Morre's invention consists of a small "boiler" and an assortment of tubes. The little boiler rests on the exhaust manifold. One tube penetrates the water jacket, another the hot air chamber, while a third extends to the breather cap. Water is drawn from the jacket into the little boiler or container, where it is immediately condensed into steam and mixed with the gasoline and hot air entering the cylinders. The pipe to the breather cap draws from the crank case all gas generated from the engine oil, thereby converting that product into fuel for the engine rather than smoke for the exhaust.

Mr. Morre has been working on this attachment for the past year, and has had 100 samples made up. Several of these samples have been installed and put to the test, and it is claimed that the poorest record yet made is 32 miles to the gallon of gasoline used.

Mr. Morre is the inventor of a number of useful devices, the most important of which, so far as the "MoJo Filter," This filter is now being manufactured in Rockdale and sold by the thousands. Mr. Morre recently disposed of his interest in the Company making these filters for a handsome cash consideration plus a good black land farm. He is also the inventor of a telephone cable "rider," which he hopes some day to realize on in a handsome manner. —Rockdale Reporter.

MILAM COUNTY SHORT LINE GIVEN CHARTER.

After approval by the Attorney General articles of incorporation of the Rockdale, Sandow & Southern Railroad Company were filed Wednesday in the office of the Secretary of State. The Company's capital stock is $10,000 and principal office at Sandow Milam county. It is proposed to construct a line of railroad from Marjorie on the main line of the International & Great Northern R'y Company, five miles west of Rockdale to Sandow, Milam County, a distance of six miles.

The board of directors consists of E. A. Camp, J. M. Weed, L. W. Sledge, J. T. Hale, and E. M. Camp, all of Rockdale and A. P. Ludyowsky and V. C. Robbins of McAlester, Ok.

This road will handle the product of the lignite mine nine miles southwest of this city. Work has been under way for some time rebuilding the line, and when completed it will be an honest-to-goodness railroad. —Rockdale Reporter.

LET THE IMMIGRATION LAW STAND.

A well known fraternal order has just adopted a resolution calling upon Congress to modify and "make easier" the immigration laws of the United States on the ground that many desirable citizens are excluded under the literacy tests and the quota law.

Nothing is said about the many more undesirable citizens which these laws exclude!

It is unfortunate that so many people are unable to visualize conditions as ever being much different from what they are to day. Too many people can not see that American civilization must inevitably totter and fall, and the United States become a second-rate power, if we admit undesirable aliens in this country for any length of time, at a greater rate than the country can educate and Americanize them.

Yet it is merely a matter of mathematics. When the "little Italies" and "little Russias" and "little Turkeys" of our cities become great, they will no longer be merely spots in a city but the cities themselves. Immigrants who retain their nationalities, speak their home language, live here as they did there, must inevitably tend to destroy that which makes America America, and substitute something else.

In the wise enforcement of drastic and stern immigration laws, to prevent this our country being overrun with the lower and the poorer types of foreign peoples, lies America's hope to stay America, and to be a real melting pot, and not a mere mixing vat!

Let us have immigrants, by all means; let us welcome deserving men and women to our shores, and show them our way of living and doing business, and being citizens. But let us not take them in faster than we can make them into real Americans, lest they make us into something foreign and alien to our ideas and ideals.

DECORATING WITH THE FLAG.

No real American needs to be told to reverence and respect his flag. No real American ever fails in showing respect to the Stars and Stripes.

But sometimes a real American may fail in respectful treatment of his flag from lack of knowledge that what he does is not respectful. There is occasion to decorate. Thirtieth of May, July the Fourth, Washington's Birthday—no matter what. Mr. American Citizen gets out a lot of American flags and drapes his place of business or his house. He drapes the flags in rosettes, in festoons, in criss-crosses, and circle. And he does it because he thinks the American flag the most beautiful in the world, and wants to honor the occasion with his flag. It doesn't occur to him that he is doing wrong, or that his pretty curleues and intertwined streams are a desecration of his flag.

It is therefore unfair to blackguard him as unpatriotic, or ridicule him for lack of taste; what is to be done is to educate him. He is to be taught that the flag, representing the heart and soul and ideals of this country, is never to be used as a decoration for something else! It must be treated as a unite in itself. It must hang free, or be stretched flat against a wall or house; never draped in rosettes, or circles. Tell the offender he can use all the red, white and blue bunting he wants in any shape his fancy dictates, but that the American flag is the American flag, to be honored with the first place, the finest position, the utmost freedom, and never to be twisted or tied or curled or draped so that it becomes a mere embellishment to something else.

Nothing comes ahead of the flag!

13. An adequate and humane solution of the penitentiary problem.

14. Strict economy in all departments of the state government, consolidating bureaus and commissions wherever necessary, to the end that all may work together and not contrary.

16. A constitutional amendment exempting a reasonable value of the improvements on a homestead from taxation to the end that home ownership may be encouraged.

16. Liberal laws toward our basic industries—farming and stockraising.

17. Institution of civil service examination for all state employees, giving preference to ex-service men wherever possible.

18. A constitutional amendment giving the legal interest rate at not exceeding 8 per cent instead of 10 per cent as at present.

19. An adequate revision of our judiciary system in order that cases may be tried speedily and litigants be not compelled to wait an indefinite length of time for an adjudication of their rights.

20. A revision of our primary and election laws to make them more workable. We must cut our government expenses and thereby reduce our taxes, or else submit to the Socialistic doctrine that the State should own all property and administer the government from the use of same. I had rather have less government and more individual freedom than to submit to Socialism.

21. The faithful and efficient enforcement of all laws, especially those against mobs. Such violence will not be tolerated. Every person shall be secure in his person, papers and effects except by due process of law. I do not believe in an invisible government. There is room for but one government and that one open and free, participated in by all the people.

PERILS OF THE AGE—

It was his first job after twenty-years up river. With a grunt of satisfaction, he noticed the object of his search, and dropped to his knees to rub his fingertips on the bottom of the rug. The old feeling of hair-breadth sensitiveness was still there, as he grasped the dial and began to twirl it. There was no sound of falling tumblers to reveal the combination, even to his sensitive ear. In perplexity the old-fashioned burglar flashed his light on again. It was a new kind of safe for there were two dials. The old fashioned burglar grasped the other and slowly turned it. There suddenly appeared a dull glow of light. A burglar alarm! He was trapped.

A voice spoke out of the silence. "Who's there," gasped the old-fashioned burglar, his nerve gone. "WJZ Newark, New Jersey. ODF Announcing" replied the voice "Recitation, Uncle Giggly's Bed Time story by—"

Poor old-fashioned burglar!

No one has ever yet been able to build a political fence that would keep the bull in.

You may lead a flapper to learning, but you can't make her think.

I'll raise you two, said the elevator boy as he took his passenger to the third floor.

"There is no danger of opportunity passing you by if you ride with some fellows we have in mind.

FISHING.

We sat by the creek all morning And angled to get a bite; We caught three chubs and two crawdads— The wind and the signs weren't right.

By noon we were sad and weary, We swore by our cans of bait, No more would we fish in Elm Creek, No more for a bite we'd wait.

But forever and forever, So long as their minds are weak, Shall anglers with worms and minnows, Hopefully wend to the creek.

And the craze will not forsake them The hope they cannot repress— That on some fortunate morning With luck, they'll bring home a mess.

A professor says dishwashing can be made as interesting as golf. But perhaps it is just as well that it hasn't been. Suppose all our women were as hopelessly enslaved to dishwashing as their husbands are to golf?

DON'T SHORT-WEIGHT YOURSELF.

Thousands of pairs of untrue and inaccurate scales went clattering into the scrap heap last year.

"Good work!" you may say. "If my grocer gave me short weight I'd quit trading with him. I wouldn't try to guess how heavy a pound is, and I won't let him guess either—not when I'm paying."

But if it weren't for the standards established by the Bureau of Standards and the regular inspection of scales and measures, you would go right on guessing—and paying without knowing whether you were cheated or not.

Guessing and paying—just as you do with your eye-sight! For you do guess (and pay for your guess dearly) about your eye-sight, the most precious of your senses. Yet there is an Eye-sight Standard. Just as all our weights and measures are right solely because of the standards at Washington, so an eye-examination is the absolute standard for normal, effective eyesight.

KLAN SPEAKER SLUGGED BY TEMPLE GARAGE MAN

GARAGE MAN RESENTS REMARKS ABOUT CATHOLIC CHURCH AND FIGHTS.

Temple, Texas, June 18.—Oliver Allstorm of Houston, former newspaper man, is in a hospital here suffering from injuries received in an altercation which resulted from remarks he is alleged to have made when he delivered an address in the city park defending the Ku Klux Klan.

Physicians said Allstorm's injuries were not serious, although he received an ugly wound over one eye. He was assigned to a room in the hospital for the night.

Following the altercation Tom Caffrey, local garage man, surrendered to Chief of Police Fisher and will appear in municipal court on a charge of aggravated assault.

Allstorm is said to be representing a paper published in San Antonio that is favorable to the Ku Klux Klan and in his address here Sunday afternoon is declared to have made remarks about the Catholic church to which some of the hearers took exception.

PRICE REDUCTION ON FIRESTONE TIRES IS ANNOUNCED BY CO.

Akron, Ohio, June 18.—One of the outstanding results of the campaign against the British crude rubber restriction act led by Harvey S. Firestone is seen in the announcement made this week by the Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of a reduction of 10 per cent in tire prices. In its announcement the company says:

"The crude rubber monopoly weakened when it came in contact with aroused public sentiment. The press of the country today reflects the determination of the American motorist that tire prices shall stay at a reasonable level—and that America must produce its own rubber."

It is generally conceded by press and public that the activities of Mr. Firestone, waged to protect motorists and other rubber consumers from the grip of a foreign monopoly, are ranked among the great commercial and patriotic achievements of the present generation, for the restriction legislation was designed to extract millions of dollars from the pockets of the American people.

While Mr. Firestone was practically unaided, and in some instances was actually opposed by certain manufacturers of rubber products, he set out to counteract the artificial stimulus given prices of crude rubber by a group of powerful British rubber growers, whose program was greatly aided by the English Government through the passage of laws restricting production. Although the Rubber Association of America claims to represent 80 per cent of the rubber industry of this country, it decided to take no aggressive action against the unwarranted legislation, and Mr. Firestone proceeded to carry on his campaign practically single-handed.

He sent representatives to England and set in motion a movement through the newspapers and other agencies against the legislation, with the result that a Parliamentary investigation of the situation was ordered. The agitation aroused reflected itself in the Far East, where the British crude rubber is grown.

In America Mr. Firestone's activities were instrumental in bringing to the attention of the government the necessity of this country looking to new sources of rubber supply, and as a result Congress appropriated a half million dollars for that purpose. The interest of automobile manufacturers, as well as of the automobile owners of the country, was aroused. The critical situation in which America was placed was made known to all having our nation's welfare at heart.

South American countries, the "home of rubber," were induced to offer conditions that would attract plantation capital, while encouraging reports came from the Philippines where the opportunities for progress and the development of a big new industry were seen.

These various phases of the situation were reflected in the crude rubber market, the price now being 28 cents a pound, while immediately following the announcement of the restriction legislation last October the price of plantation rubber advanced from 14 cents to 37 cents a pound.

The increase last fall to 37 cents a pound was not based upon the natural economic laws of supply and demand, but upon manipulation and speculation in the market, where a shortage was anticipated. The rubber growers, who had also secured control of the administration of the legislation through the British Colonial Office, became alarmed at the growing public sentiment aroused by

Mr. Firestone's activities, and the result was that much more rubber was forthcoming from the British restricted possessions than the most optimistic estimates predicted at the time of the enactment of the legislation.

"The British rubber growers responsible for the legislation either can not or do not wish to control the situation and enforce the law to the letter," said Mr. Firestone, "because from information I have gathered I believe they now fear the results of strict enforcement, as it would cause a shortage of rubber and naturally strengthen those of us who are opposing the law. The restriction act provides that only 60 per cent of normal (1920) production shall be exported, but as a matter of fact close to 100 per cent is coming from the restricted area."

The reduction in crude rubber prices means a saving of many millions of dollars to American consumers, who otherwise would have had to pay tribute to a small group of rubber plantation shareholders in London.

It is this lower cost of crude rubber and further economies in manufacturing which Mr. Firestone says have enabled his company to announce a 10 per cent reduction in tire prices at this time.

SOUND ADVICE FROM A VETERAN FIRE-FIGHTER

"As soon as you discover that there is fire in the house, go to the door of your room and, if it is closed, put your foot behind it and then open it cautiously, just enough so that you can see out. Don't throw the door open wide, because if the fire has been burning for some time there will be such a draft that you may not be able to get the door shut again, and in that case the fire will rush in and set everything in the room afire, including yourself. If you find that there is a strong pressure against the door and that the fire is close, shut it and coolly consider what to do. It will be several minutes before that door will burn through, and in that time you can make a sheet into a rope and slide to the ground with it, or you can throw the mattresses and pillows out of the window so that if you have to jump you will have something soft to fall on. Don't jump until it is absolutely necessary."

NEW BRAUNFELS OFFERS IDEAL OUTING FOR ALL

COMAL COUNTY CAPITAL ATTRACTING HUNDREDS OF TOURISTS ANNUALLY.

Possessing rare natural charm and fishing, swimming and bathing opportunities not found in any other city in Texas the city of New Braunfels, Comal County Capital and one of the oldest Texas towns, has found its place of distinction among the great summer resorts of the south. Cameron people who go there annually find conditions ideal and well appreciate anything said in praise of the city and the Comal river and camping grounds.

The Landa Park, one of the great natural beauty spots of America is perhaps without equal as a small park site. For Camping, however, there are other places of greater advantage. Chief among these is Camp Warnecke situated with a stone's throw of the city on the banks of the Comal. Here bathing can be had, cottages and fishing advantages, conveniences not offered in Landa Park. The genial proprietor Otto Warnecke does everything possible to make his guests comfortable.

W. H. Brown, sage of the Camp, and custodian of the boats and fishing grounds so dear to the heart of every angler, is at once sought and appreciated by all who go there. Mr. Brown goes to the rapids each morning for a swim and to get bait for the fishermen. Minnows, the kind that get the bass and make the blue channel cat strike.

For camping this place has few equals. A word about Camp Warnecke is in line.

Camp Warnecke is an ideal summer resort and the place you want to spend your summer, it is situated within the city limits of the City of New Braunfels, in Comal County, Texas, and is distant from the center of the town about four blocks. This camp is located in a horse-shoe bend made by the beautiful Comal, and is situated above all high water.

The junction of the Guadalupe and Comal Rivers forma part of the attraction of Camp Warnecke, for it thus makes fishing easily accessible to campers in Camp Warnecke.

The Comal River is formed by springs gushing out of the mountain side about one mile, in an air-line from Camp Warnecke, and the Comal River is the shortest large river in the world, and the water is always clear and of right temperature for bathing, and is itself well stocked with fish. Just below the junction of the Guadalupe and Comal River, distant from Camp Warnecke, about 1500 feet, the Planters & Merchants Mills have erected a dam which created a beautiful lake, which makes boating and fishing one of the attractive features of Camp Warnecke. Eminent Botanists have declared that the Guadalupe River Valley contains every fern known, and lovers of nature, flowers and plants thus have an opportunity of satisfying their desires.

Camp Warnecke has electric lights, city water connections, local and long distant telephone, and has fifty screened cottages and tents in size 12 by 24 feet. Each cottage is furnished with two steel cots with mattresses, one gold medal folding cot, one oil stove, one ice box, one table, one dressing table, one bench, and two chairs, electric lights and city water, being thus fully equipped for three people, excepting the linen and cooking utensils, which must be furnished by campers. It will be seen from the foregoing, that all camp houses are arranged for light house-keeping.

Camp Warnecke has a large dance hall which is furnished with electric piano, and various musical instruments, and has a large seating capacity. This dance hall may be used by campers and visitors at any time during the day and not later than eleven o'clock at night.

The bottom of the river is formed of soft blue stone, the water is as clear as crystal, and is of such depth as to make it a wonderful swimming pool.

Camp Warnecke has a restaurant at which lunches will be served, and at which bread, milk and ice can be obtained by those doing light house-keeping at the camp.

Camp Warnecke has a large garage and campers having cars may obtain space at the rate of $1 per week.

EVEN CAREFUL CALOMEL USERS ARE SALIVATED

NEXT DOSE OF TREACHEROUS DRUG MAY START MISERY FOR YOU.

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue, and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

Committee Named By Hoover Submits Report Dealing With Business Cycle; Urge Caution In Periods of Prosperity

CLARENCE M. WOOLEY

JOSEPH H. DEFREES

Joseph H. Defrees, former president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, and Clarence M. Wooley, president of the American Radiator Company, are two of the distinguished committee whom Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce and Chairman of the President's Conference on Unemployment, asked to undertake the study of how to avoid periodic business depressions, known among economists as dips in the business cycle.

The full report of the committee, whose chairman was Owen D. Young, president of the General Electric Company, and all of whose personnel was chosen for unusual qualifications in the field of practical business, is now available by application to the Department of Commerce, Washington, D. C. It outlines specific safeguards for the national prosperity and requests further opinion and comment from the public at large. Control of bank credits as inflation nears, cancellation penalties in buying contracts so as to make speculation in commodities unprofitable, avoidance of governmental building competition with private construction during periods of expansion, and the setting up of a gold reserve from America's present dangerously large surplus so as to prepare for future foreign demands are among the remedies for inflation that are outlined and discussed.

Wesley C. Mitchell, expert of the National Bureau of Economic Research, directed the gathering of the voluminous data on which the findings of the committee were based. The committee report has been hailed as a great forward step toward stabilizing business conditions in the United States. Secretary Hoover says "it represents a definite advance in economic thought and offers practical constructive suggestions that should make for progress."

BEDTIME FABLE—DAY BY DAY. (One of "Aesop's Film Fables") By AESOP, JR.

In the not so long ago, Henry Cat just thought about whatever he wanted until he got it. He would say the words "Day by Day" over and over adding the name of what he desired.

Henry told Henrietta Hen to say, "Day by day in every way I'm laying better and better." Within two minutes she laid twelve eggs. Milton House tried in vain to raise some plants. But with Henry's help he instantly grew a big banana tree loaded with fruit. The Cat even made Robert Rabbit strong enough to whip three hound dogs.

Now, Farmer Al Falfa suffered so much from gout that he cried with pain. Henry heard him and thinking that he could help the old gentleman, hurried over to the farmhouse. Al was sitting all bundled up in a blanket with his feet in a tub of hot water.

"I believe that I can help you to cure yourself," declared the Cat. He handed Al a book on Mental Healing. The Farmer took one look and threw the book at Henry, crying, "It's all silly nonsense." To prove his claims, Henry cured three crippled mice that struggled across the floor. Unconvinced, Al ordered Henry out. The Cat noticed Al peeking out of the door. So, he cured a monkey in a wheel chair and the animal scampered away.

This cure made Al curious enough to come out of the house. Henry, again, offered help. "Only travel will cure me," insisted the stubborn Farmer. "All right," replied Henry, "sit down on this toy wagon." Al did as he told and then Henry hit him on the head with a hammer.

Heavy blows soon sent Al off on a mental trip. He went up like a skyrocket into the heavens. After shooting around the sun, moon and stars he fell earthward. Suddenly, he splashed into the ocean. When he came to the surface he was washed upon a high rock. A pretty mermaid swam up and put her arms around him. But at this moment his dream ended. The Farmer awoke to find himself hugging Henry Cat. Forgetting his gout, Al jumped up and chased the Cat. Thus by making a big effort to walk he overcame his gout. And proved the truth of the "Aesop's Film Fables." Moral: "No one is mighty but he who conquers himself."

FIGURES REFUTE CLAIM PROHIBITION IS FAILING

HOOTCH PROPOGANDA NAILED BY DIRECTOR FRANK COLE.

Federal Prohibition Director, Frank Cole, announces the receipt of the second anniversary statement of R. A. Haynes as Federal Prohibition Commissioner, which sets forth the progress of prohibition law enforcement since his assuming the task, June 11, 1921.

Much has been accomplished in the way of regulation of withdrawals, use of padlock proceedings, convictions of "higher-ups," co-operation of state, county, and municipal officials with prohibition enforcement agents, wholesale drug violations and heavier sentences.

When we measure the progress of prohibition law enforcement from the starting point, we are amazed at the comparison of the situation today with those of pre-prohibition days when it was a common sight to see as many as 50 saloons in a few blocks of a busy city street, and go down that same street today and find those same buildings occupied with other business firms that are a benefit to the public and to the nation. This has diverted into the channels of legitimate business a vast amount of money, which cannot have other than a most wholesome effect upon business conditions in general.

"It is an unescapable fact that anything which lifts the standard of living on the part of our working class will of necessity contribute towards better business conditions," says Commissioner Haynes. "It has increased the purchasing power of the working man's family of necessities and even luxuries, made a more thrifty working class, and physically a better working class. It has improved credit, bills are more promptly paid and obligations met. Every business man knows that anything which contributes toward the re-establishment of credit or that assists in development of a keener moral sense for obligation is a most needed and welcome force in the business life of our country. No one can read these things and escape the conviction that prohibition is an economic force lying at the very heart of America's survival in the commercial world."

"Much propaganda, which seems to be nation-wide, has been broadcasted to create the impression that enforcement is breaking down, when the very reverse is true. Especially have they played up the great amount of liquor being smuggled to our shores, that bootleggers may foist their poisonous wares upon the public as 'genuine imported stuff' and for which fabulous prices are paid. The plants making counterfeit labels and stamps that have been seized along the New Jersey and New York coasts bear out this statement."

"The following figures are exports of distilled spirits from the United Kingdom of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales, the main source of supply, precludes the possibility of any appreciable amount of genuine liquor reaching our shores."

"The export of distilled spirits from the United Kingdom to Canada in 1913 reached 1,624,136 proof gallons. The exports to Canada from the United Kingdom during 1922 the exports fell to 813,105. In 1922 the exports of 1923 were the first four months of 1923 were 219,528 proof gallons as compared with 279,879 in the first four months of 1922. This is less than 41 per cent of the amount imported from the same source in the pre-prohibition year of 1913."

"In the West Indies and the Bahamas, however, we find their imports from the United Kingdom increased from 94,140 proof gallons in 1913 to 167,686 proof gallons in the first four months of 1922, which, by working on the same average, would amount to 503,058 proof gallons for the entire year. (The 1922 figures also include the exports to British Guiana.) The exports from the West Indies, Bahamas and British Guiana for the first four months of 1923 were 350,311 proof gallons, which if maintained at the same rate for the entire year, would amount to 1,401,244 proof gallons. If the entire amount was smuggled into the United States, it would equal less than three-fourths of one per cent of the taxpaid liquor withdrawals for consumption in the United States for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, which amounted to 140,289,424.8 gallons.

"The exports from the United Kingdom to Mexico in 1913 were 14,465 proof gallons, and in 1921 (the largest figures available) reached 43,845 proof gallons."

"Allowing none for home use, if the entire amount of exports of distilled spirits from the United Kingdom to the Bahamas, West Indies and Canada in 1923, be added to the imports of Mexico in 1921, (the latest figures available) and smuggled into the United States, the total would be about one and one-fourth per cent of the tax-paid liquor withdrawals for consumption for the fiscal year of 1913.

"The withdrawals of tax-paid distilled spirits for consumption in the United States, exclusive of alcohol, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1922, were 2,696,175.6 proof gallons, and including alcohol totaled 19,087,665.2 proof gallons. These taxpaid liquors are used for manufacturing purposes, for use in hospitals and liquors sold on doctors' prescriptions. The total tax-paid withdrawals for the calendar year of 1922 amounted to 13,477,219.11 proof gallons. Even if this were added to the possible smuggled goods, the amount would be negligible compared with the pre-prohibition consumption."

"While an American proof gallon of distilled spirits is measured by the old Winchester gallon and contains 50 per cent alcohol, the proof gallon of Great Britain contains 67.06 per cent of alcohol."

"It is readily seen that there is less occasion to worry over 'rum fleet' smugglers than over the domestic concoction of fraudulent spirits. If a greater amount is smuggled than these figures show. It is certain that expansion comes by means of adulteration and rectification, or is synthetic stuff smuggled out and in again."

LADY GOT SO WEAK COULD SCARCELY STAND

After Suffering From Many Female Troubles This Lady Heard of Cardui and Took It, She Says, "Until I Was Well."

"SOME TIME AGO," says Mrs. Buena McFarland, of R. F. D. 2, Bostic, N. C., "I suffered a great deal with weakness common to women. I had bearing-down pains, my sides and back hurt, and my limbs drew. I would get so weak in my knees I could scarcely stand."

"I was very nervous, and could not eat. I didn't feel like eating. I grew thin, and did not have ambition for anything."

"I had been trying other remedies... but did not get any better."

"Some one told us of Cardui, and it was recommended for. I also took a Ladies Birthday Almanac and read of a case something like mine. I told my husband to get it and I would try it."

"I saw a great improvement after the first bottle (of Cardui), so I kept it up until I was well. Now I am the picture of health."

Thousands of other women have written, to tell of the beneficial results obtained by taking Cardui, and to recommend it to others."

Cardui has stood the test of extensive use, for more than forty years, in the treatment of troubles common to women. Try it

DODGE BROTHERS TOURING CAR

If there is one word which will sum up the average owner's impression of Dodge Brothers Touring Car, that word is dependable.

If there is a word to express the quality which Dodge Brothers have striven, above all else, to build into the Touring Car, it is again—dependable.

Indeed, it is not too much to say that the word dependable has come to be definitely associated, the nation over, with Dodge Brothers Touring Car—and the other vehicles bearing their name.

Nor have Dodge Brothers built this enviable reputation through advertising. They have built motor cars, so dependable in fact that the word has presented itself automatically to the public mind.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and youthfulness to hair when faded, streaked or gray

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

WALKER-HEFLEY.

Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the First Baptist Church in this city occurred a marriage which has been looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by many friends. The contracting parties being Miss Gladys Maurine Walker of Cameron and William Tell Hefley of Temple. Because of the prominence of the two families and because of the personality of the two principals, a large group of friends filled the church before the hour for the ceremony.

Springer ferns gracefully intermingled with Shasta daisies in baskets and drooping from wall vases made a most tasteful decoration for the altar.

Preceding the ceremony, a short musical program was given. The first number being a violin solo "Meditations" by Miss Olive Henderson, accompanied by Miss Helen Flinn on the piano. Miss Agnes Henderson sang "I Know A Lovely Garden" with violin and piano accompaniment.

Lohengrin's Wedding Choruses announced the entrance of the bridal party. Rev. Russell C. White, who performed the ceremony, entered from the Pastor's study on the right of the pulpit. The ushers, James Baskin of Cameron and T. J. Cloud of Temple marched down the main aisles preceding the bride and her attendant, Miss Velda Walker, and met the groom and his best man, Lane Denson at the altar.

A solemn hush fell on the audience as Rev. White spoke the beautiful words uniting these young lives. Mendelssohn's march was played as a recessional.

The bride's dress was a mid night blue canton with gray accessories. Her maid was attired in green and both carried arm bouquets of pink rose buds. The Misses Henderson and Flinn wore sport suits.

The bride and the groom were both born and reared in Cameron, both graduates from our high school and both hold a place in the hearts of the people of this city.

William Tell Hefley is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James S. Hefley. He did his bit, and more, during the war, serving with the 36th Division. Returning home, he moved to Temple where he is a present prominently identified with the business and commercial interests of that city.

Miss Walker is a grand daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Todd and a daughter of Mrs. Olive Walker of New Orleans. After graduating from high school, she pursued her studies in the higher institutions of learning and for several years has been a successful teacher. She has taught in the Cameron school and finished her third year as a member of the Bryan school faculty in May. She is an attractive young woman, possessing qualities of mind and heart which fit her for a large sphere of usefulness and qualify her for becoming a real home maker.

After a short bridal trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hefley will be at home in Temple.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY.

Miss Jewel Zemary Joslin will be married on June 27, 1923, at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the First Methodist church, Cameron, to Paul George Silber of San Antonio.

This announcement was made last Saturday afternoon, June 16, when Miss Susanna Jackson, a close friend of the bride to be, entertained a number of friends at her home on West 13th.

The guests for this occasion, arriving at 4:30 found the hostess home decorated with Shasta daisies and crepe myrtle and seven tables arranged for auction forty two which was to be the diversion for the afternoon. The tables were centered with a pot of Shastas and the hostess very cleverly carried her color scheme of pink, yellow and green through each feature. Cupid heads were given for eighty-four favors.

After the games, hand painted covers were placed on the tables, and frozen fruit topped with pink whipped cream was served with white cake and a green iced drink.

The plate favors were rosebud cards containing the announcement. The honoree's plate carried a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Joslin was handsomely gown-d in peach canton with a corsage of valley lilies and sweet heart buds.

Mr. Silber, the man of her choice, is the head member of the firm of P. G. Silber and Company, Architects and Engineers, San Antonio. He is well known in Cameron since he designed the handsome new Methodist church in which the wedding will be solemnized.

MISS WINNIE HENDERSON ENTERTAINS JUNE BRIDES.

Last Tuesday morning Miss Winnie Henderson entertained in honor of two June brides, Miss Gladys Maurine Walker and Miss Jewel Zemary Joslin.

Roses, gladioli and scarlet cypress made a pretty decoration for this morning affair.

After a number of good natured jokes had been told on Newly Weds, paper and pencils were passed and the married guests wrote "What My Husband Does," the young ladies,

"What My Wife Does."

Later each guest was asked to write a favorite recipe, making two copies, so that each bride might have, as a souvenir of this occasion, the recipes for a valuable cook book. The recipes were placed in hand painted covers before being presented to the honorees.

A salad and ice course was served by the hostess assisted by Miss Mary Lake Henderson.
